- Copy the table below and use it for all sources you will use for your essay.
- You may use as many sources from the course material as you would like.
- You must use between 3 and 6 additional sources not from the course materials.
- Each page from a website is considered a distinct source. See Religion Citation FAQ for guidelines for citing different pages from one website.

Note: If you use a dictionary or encyclopedia, you may treat it as one source. List entries used in alphabetical order. For each entry, give the name of the entry and author, if available, in bold. On the next line, provide the URL for the entry. Leave two blank lines between each entry.
